

SAY YES, DO NOTHING

Press reviews

'Our discovery of the year and must see live act...a show well worth coming out for.' – Loud Enough Magazine

'Blew the roof off' – DJ Indi, O.F.I. Monday Show

'Raucous and in your face, with lyrics that were sarcastic and heartfelt. Lead singer Dave is the ultimate showman!' – Unknown Sounds

'Stonking blues guitar intro, whisky-soaked vocal, and the catchiest chorus of 2023.' – Garlen Lo, on 'Hit the Top'

'One cannot help but keep listening, despite the melancholy which could become unbearable in clumsier hands.' - By the Freaks

'His voice reminds me of what would happen if we were to combine Elvis Costello with Joe Strummer of The Clash. These two elements of the punkish tone of the guitar and the Strum-ello voice combine beautifully.' Syncic Spins

'Catchy as fk! Best band name, ever' - New Music Saturday

'I love this band! They dish serious subjects, roll them up in metaphorical, elite writing veined with paradoxical and satirical kickers.' - Brecon Indie Reviews

'Say Yes, Do Nothing transcribe a real situation, which people can relate to, and produce something structurally and musically marvellous.' – Advosound

'"Hit the Top's" easy, catchy flow got me easily humming it after the very first listen' – Rock Era Magazine
